

Date:
Topic: NSF News

A Sad Day for NSF

We found out today that one of our brothers, Junkman, aka David Lougee, passed away in his sleep on June 4th. He has been a light in NSF for many years and will be missed dearly. In times such as these this should remind us that our time here is finite and we should live every day to its fullest.

GL, GG, and Godspeed Junk.

This article comes from =|NSF|= Northern Special Forces:
<http://www.northernspecialforces.com>

The URL for this story is:
<http://www.northernspecialforces.com/index.php?op=NEArticle&sid=4>